DISFRANCHISING REDUCTION OF NEGROES IS REPRESENTATION GIVEN HEARING NOW DOUBTFUL

Black and White Thunder Clash in Meeting Before Congressional Committee. Refuse To Have Pictures Taken With Negroes

Associated Negro Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—The first time in a number of years, Congressmen from the South, who are holding their membership because of disfranchisement of colored Americans, "had their feelings hurt," and became indignantly rebuffed, leaving in haste the National Equal Rights League, which was held in the city.

The hearings, which were resumed last night after the holidays, have been filled with startling evidence, from "thunder" of dark Americans to the wild howls of Southern Congressmen refusing to have their pictures taken of committee meetings "with Negroes as a background," as they put it.

A number of those who have offered evidence before the committee are James Weldon Johnson, William Pickens, Walter F. White, James A. Cobb and George H. Murray. All officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Governor Hyde Makes Special Mention Of Negro's Needs Along Educational Lines, Logical And Bold 'Appeal By Pres. Richardson Of Lincoln Institute

Special To The Argus
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 10.—Of the many conferences held here during the past week at the call of Governor Hyde, none was more important than the State-wide Educational conference which held a two-days session at the Lincoln Institute.

Governor Hyde made the opening address, made special reference to the colored people and their needs for equal chance for education. He said in part: "I am glad to see a group of colored people here, and I am glad to see after all, education is not a question of color or white, but it is something that uplifts all the people of the State. And I am glad that you here assembled will give due consideration to this matter to the end that every child in the State, be black or white, may have equal chance the State can afford to educate himself."

Dr. J. H. Hyde, president of the Lincoln Institute, made the closing address, and in his address, he made a special mention of the colored people and their needs for equal chance for education.

"WILL YOU MARRY ME?"

How long shall the innocent victims of misplaced trust be made to suffer the full penalty for their mistakes?
Must a sweet girl's future be blackened, her reputation ruined, her child-guiltless babe—driven into a life of fame, solely because she loved and wisely had too well?
These are the mighty questions so dramatically set forth in the story of "Will You Marry Me"—a story that every mother and father, every daughter and son should know and take to heart.A Picture That Strips the Shroud of Ignorance from

SPIRITUAL CHRISTIAN UNION CHURCH
2127 LAYTON AVENUE

The Spiritual Christian Union Church 2127 Layton Avenue, holds divine spiritual services every Sunday, Friday and Tuesday with sermon and demonstration of the spirit forces. All services begin promptly at 8 p. m. J. S. Weatherford, pastor, assisted by L. Cooper, secretary. 6-25-Inf.

THE LIBERTY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

WORSHIPING AT 1136 N. Vandeventer.
SUNDAY SCHOOL from 10 a. m. to 11 a. m.
SONG SERVICE AND PREACHING from 11 a. m. to 12 m.
EVENING SERVICE from 7:30 to 9:30.

Dr. E. J. Davis, Sup. L. M. Morrow, Pastor; E. H. Hamilton, Minister.

FARRISH CHAPEL, C. M. E.—Rev. Thos. Farrish, was at his best on last Sunday. He preached two able sermons at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

The pastor held a most interesting church conference at the close of the 11 o'clock service. After a careful review of the work by the pastor, the local preachers, class leaders, Sunday School leaders and Stewards, Rev. Farrish submitted their report. While there is much to be done, the reports show the work in a flourishing condition.

All of the members are urged to make one more pull, all pulling together, great work will be accomplished. The church is looking forward to new life and is desirous to do a great service in the advancement of the church.

A special program will be rendered Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. On Monday evening a high class Moving Picture Entertainment will be exhibited by Mr. W. W. Williamson. Admission for adults, 15 cents; children 10 cents.

GOOD SAMARITAN M. CHURCH
1168 West Belle—Sunday was a very satisfactory day for the Good Samaritan church. The spiritual life was high in this house. The series of meetings will close Wednesday evening. The pastor will preach on the subject "Come and worship with us. Revival is here."

Rev. J. H. Davis, pastor, will preach on the subject "Come and worship with us. Revival is here."
